

DISCONTINUANCE NOTICE SENT TO CUSTOMERS

("LDanywhere" is the trade name for Mobilecom Investments, LLC's international service)

Dear Loyal LDanywhere users

It is with deep regret that we inform you that LDanywhere will cease business operations as of 12:00 am, 8/31/2009. Just as most people and businesses are feeling the effects of the world wide economic downturn, so has LDanywhere. Unfortunately, our business was established just as the slowdown began and we were not yet prepared to handle such an event. We apologize for the obvious frustration that this will cause.

Please ensure that any balance in your account has been exhausted as we will not be able to offer a refund of the unused funds. Auto recharge has been disabled as of 7/31/2009, users will not be automatically charged for additional services after this date.

If you have any questions or concerns, please email us at support@ldanywhere.com or call us at 1888.853.2878. We truly have appreciated your business and support. Thank you for using our services.

Best Regards

LDanywhere
